In their order quoted above, the Government have extended with effect from 11th January 1944 the Madras Rationing Order, 1943 to Bellary Municipality and its suburban areas. In their order G.O.Ms. 298 Dev. dated 22-1-1944 the Government have approved the proposals that rice and cholam may be rationed in Bellary Municipali and its suburban areas. Buffer stock of cholam has not been built up. But sufficient stock of rice is available for starting rationing with rice alone as rationed article in this Municipality on the 5th March 1944. The Board considers that there is no need to wait till buffer stocks of cholam is built up and has accordingly propose to introduce rationing on 5-3-1944 in this Municipality with rice alone as the rationed article.
